

Obituary

Born: Thursday, October 4, 1962

Died: Tuesday, April 20, 2021

Andrew Martin O'Reilly was born on October 4, 1962 at Patuxent River Naval Air Station to Robert O'Reilly and Leilani Evans O'Reilly. He departed this life on April 20, 2021 at his home in Beaver, Oklahoma.

Andy was the youngest of three children. He was raised in the military and traveled extensively. He graduated from Woodward High School in 1980 and he apprenticed under his father, a skilled dental technician, who taught him how to make dentures.

In 1986, Andy married and to this union his son Ryan Andrew O'Reilly was born.

Through the years, Andy worked diligently and mastered dental techniques. He was gifted at giving people their smile back. He also had a knack for finding humor and giving those around him a good laugh.

In 2000, Andy moved to Beaver on the family farm, where he continued making dentures along with raising cattle. He learned how to repair farm equipment and how to care for cattle. He liked animals and doing things outdoors.

Andy married Catrina Hall, the love of his life in 2011. He attended the Catholic church and he loved spending time with his grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his father Robert W. O'Reilly, and is survived by his wife Catrina, son Ryan and companion, Janessa Davis, mother Leilani, sister Julie and her husband Richard McLaughlin, nephew Jim Russell, brother Robert M. O'Reilly and wife Elizabeth, Jon and Meg Geissler and children, Daniel and Alyssa Lee and children, and Joshua Gutierrez.
